DOWNTOWN DAHLONEGA HOSTS FIRST SIX GAP CRITERIUM TO KICK OFF WEEKEND BICYCLE RACING EVENTS

Join us in welcoming visiting spectators and professional bicycle racers for Georgia's final championship series event!

To further promote Dahlonega as Georgia's premier cycling venue, bicycle racing events will kick off on Saturday night, September 24th, with the first Six Gap Criterium prior to Sunday's 23rd Annual Six Gap Century & Three Gap Fifty Bike Rides.

Bicycle Race Criteriums are popular not just with racers, but with huge crowds of spectators, consistently drawing thousands of visitors and some of cycling's biggest stars.

The Dahlonega Six Gap Criterium on Saturday, September 24th, adds an extra attraction to the Bicycle events weekend. Locals, visitors, and cycling enthusiasts will enjoy Dahlonega's downtown shopping and dining district as spectators for an exciting evening of races.

The Six Gap Criterium is the final event in the inaugural Georgia Championship Series (GCS). The race and series is open to all riders from throughout the region. A full slate of races is scheduled for USA Cycling categories and beginners. All cyclists are invited to come watch or compete in the Six Gap Criterium Saturday in downtown Dahlonega as a part of the Six Gap Century & Three Gap Fifty Bike Rides.

The course will include the Public Square, West Main Street, and NGCSU Campus in front of Price Memorial Hall, providing a great setting for the final stop on the 2011 GCS. Please see the attached MAP and SCHEDULE for full details.
