

Keep Lumpkin County Beautiful and the North Georgia Resource Management Authority are working with Document Destruction Services to provide free document destruction for the residents of Lumpkin County on March 30, 2019 at the Recycling Processing Center at 1642 Red Oak Flats Road, Dahlonega from 10 until noon. This event will be rescheduled in the event of rain.

Document Destruction Service of Homer, Georgia is donating Document Destruction services to the residents of Lumpkin County. Citizens can bring personal documents for destruction. Suggested documents are any paper that have a name, address and any other personal information such as old tax papers, bank statements, credit card statements or medical records. A certificate of destruction will be provided upon request.

With identity theft being the fasting rising crime in our nation, it is more important than ever that sensitive documents be properly destroyed. Please take advantage of this opportunity to have these papers destroyed in the most secure manner possible.
